Jockey Tried to Rate Soundly Without Success-Heavy Play on Ida Ledford and Christine A.

It was Mistress Kitty Clyde's turn to oblice with the daily long odds win at the Fair Grounds yesterday. Given a desperate rail-ride by W. Jones, the heaviest boy that ever sat on a race horse, this good mare won by a neck in a hard drive from the $ to 5 favorite, Tickful, As good as 50 to 1 in the betting, she had few backers.

On some of her early spring races, and on her last year's form and clars, the mare had an outside chance. Her last race was not so bad for a first out in some time. In her previous races she had shown good speed under Raymond Smith's ill-judged rides. Two outs previous to yesterday she fell. This was on May 2. The other day she was out again and ran a fair race. Testerday she was in the running all the time, came with a great whoop in the stretch, and ran away with Jones, and won on her pluck. She did not heat much. Wine-press passed her in the stretch last time out. Winepress would not have been one, two, ten in the race Kitty Clyde won yes-two, ten in the race Kitty Clyde won yesterday.

Jim Winn, W. B. Gates and Deponan were cut off on the first turn and badly ridden, while Kitty, Tickful and Don Luis gained a lot of ground in the Jumble at the first turn. Kitty, Tickful and Don Luis had the early speed to carry them out of the megs. The crazy quilt handleap, the fourth race, was won by Scurpto. There was little betting on it. It was made up of a lot of insane horses. No one could tell what Ogle and Soundly would do. Buccleuth had not been out for some time and was short. Johnnie Hengel thought he would have Soundly rated and try to save her speed for a stretch run. She was rated all right, but dogged it when O'Connor called upon her in the stretch. Scorpto, who had run with her, went on and won. Omdurman, a good horse over a distance, finished fast, wore Nickey D. down and was second. Nickey was third. The track was a bit soft and the weight anchored the good son of Keene.

Ogle ran an awfully bad race. He was taking off twenty-one pounds on his previous race and was beaten forty lengths in the same time he made last Monday.

The ring was full of crazy bookmakers and bettors in the first race. Avoid opened at 1 to 2 and went to even money in the face of a flerce plunge on Christine A. The plunge was led by Albert Franklin, her rainer Avoid waked home, while Pathos beat Christine for the place. On form Christine did not have a change. The load of wise money alone said she would win.

Navarino and Little Arrow were the cholees in the bookmakers race, the second. They were both off hadly. Duels, breaking in front, went on and won. O'Nell was busy with Little Arrow and got second place, but Beauchamp gave Navarino an easy ride. At that he almost got into the money, coming from nowhere in the stretch, He was lots the best. Beauchamp's ride on him was busy with Little Arrow and got second place, but Beauchamp as riding for his stable on Lakeview Belle, got her off well and was perfectly ridden by Dominick.

upon. Look out for Audiphone in this race. This fellow was in for an airing behind Lady Strathmore, and that lot the other day. He wants a route, and he loves mud. Watch him at a price. Do not let him get away. He will surely show.

It looks like South Breeze in the fourth race, but Lingo has been working good enough to win. Her last race was bad. Never mind that. She belongs to the shrewd Mr. Trotter, who got the price and the goods with Scorplo yesterday. Lingo can run six furiongs in 1:18 with that weight up, and the way she finished at a mile and one-sixteenth at Lakeside, beating good ones, was a caution. Look out for Lingo this afternoon.

kind of a filly and ran a good race or two before she was laid up a month ago. She has some class to her and has been specially prepared to win this race. On his early spring races at New Orleans Maveri looks good, but this filly has a chance to beat him. On his one good race Jack Young seems to have third place at his mercy. Clate Bell has been working fast, and she may win here

Louis Wagner is in where he belongs in the second race. From Crimean and Nickey D. to Uterp and Laura G. G. is quite a drop. He is a fast breaker, will clear the field in a hurry and will have plain sailing. They cannot let him off badly, for he is a first-class breaker. Run in the mud. Uterp and Peace will be the contenders.

It looks like Mennoe in the third if she is fit. She developed sulks and nastinees this order and in unresidable. Then the chances in the Hullum has been cheek by Though Ben Hullum has been cheek by does not like a pound of weight. Her back is bad, and she is taking up seven pounds on her best race, which means that she will run the mile about 1:41%. Lofter can beat this. Gates will be outstepped and Miss Golighty will scarce go the distance. It seems to lie between Loften and Hullum, though Hullum ran as if very short the other day.

If old Thrive was only half right what things he would do to this lot. He ran an awfully good race while high in condition last year and may do the same to-day. Bengal's good race with Four Leaf C. gives him a royal chance. Red Apple will break fast and go well. So will Loone. It is a race that no one can pick.

Curd Giliock cut off the entire field behind Lakeview Belle in the fifth race. She was leading and he was second. He threw Parnassus from third to tenth place and lost him fully fifteen lengths. Parnassus was fourteen lengths behind Lakeview Belle turning into the stretch, but she only beat him three lengths. She was fifteen lengths ahead of Lillian M. and beat her two lengths. The luck of it!

They bet on Parnassus yesterday. He should have won. Higgins allowed the horses to be cut off by a crab like Curd Gillock when a good jockey would have taken care of him. Some more of the bad boy and the long price, with the money in the sawer.

Deponan, with McKinney up, is another case of good horse ready, checks down and bad rider up. With a clever ride Deponan could not have lost yesterday. McKinney butchered him up terribly.

Contrast the race that Orris ran yesterday with the one she ran previous out. She would have won yesterday had O'Nell ridden without a whip. He let go of her head and allowed her to stagger all over the track. Beauchamp gave Navarino an easy race yesterday. He got him off badly and gave it up before they ran 100 yards. The horse ran as he pleased after that. He was pounds the best.

Mr. Jaques was sore after the fifth race yesterday. He thought Ransch's hands were heavy as anchors on Lillian M. They say that Ransch is a good jockey, with excellent hands.

Colt Ran Marvelous Race in Preliminary to the American Derby.

Chicago, June 18.-J. B. Respess's Belle's commoner, an outsider in the betting in the American Derby, which will be run came Strong in the End-Hot Fahere Saturday, won the Derby Trial Spe-cial to-day at Harlem. The colt ran a New York, June 18.-Advance Guard won marvelous race, covering the mile and an quarter, at Sheepshead Bay, to-day. Alex. eighth in 1:532-5, and won in a gallop by Shields put up Wonderly to-day and he three lengths John A Drake's Wyeth in rode the old horse in masterly style. In a desperate drive, beat out Lucian Appieby by a nose. Prowl. who was forth, was branch Handleap, when he finished in the ruck, he was made a hot favorite at 7 to 5. ond choice in the American Derby, quit after he had run a mile.

Jockey and Horse Hart. The race came near causing the death of Jockey Winkfield. He had the mount on S. C. Hildreth's McCheeney, who, coupled with Lucien Apphleby, was held favorite at 1 to 2. At the half-mile pole McChesney fell, throwing Winkfield against the rall. Winkfield's right leg was injured badly and his collar bone was broken. McChesney slid about thirty feet, but was seemingly uninjured, except for a cut on his nose. He limped slightly on arising, but the limp disappeared in a few strides. The accident prevent McChesney starting in the Amer-ican Derby, and Winkfield will be unable to ride any more this season. The withdrawal of Abe Frank Otis and Lord Quex left a field of seven to go to the post for the race, which was run as the third, in order to escape a threatened rainstorm. Hildreth's entry, McChesney and Lucien Appleby were made favorite at 7 to 10, with Crusados second choice, at 5 to 1. Belle's Commoner came next in favor at 7 Wyeth was quoted at 12 to 1 and Prowl and Glenwater at 30 to 1 each. Description of Race.

After a delay of five minutes at the post the field was sent away to a good start. Passing the stand Glenwater was showing the way by a head in front of Belle's Cor moner, with Crusados on the latter's sad-dle girth.

Rounding the first turn Crusados forged his way to the front and attempted to run away from the field, but was unable to get away from Glenwater. In the run Minotaur, Begone, Kumshaw and Desister and ran. Seventh race, selling, one and one-sixteenth mile, on the furf-Griden Cottage, 39 (J. Daly), 10 to 1, wen; Cuspider, H7 (Wonderly), 8 to 1, second, Alsike, 10s (Creamer), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:0 4-5. Astor, Marsitien, Klanikianick, Master Frank, Mollie Peyton, South Elkhorn, Dachshund, Prince Richard, and Lord Sterling also ran. away from the head, but was unable to get away from Glenwater. In the run down the back stretch Crusados led by about half a length, with Glenwater second, Belle's Commoner third and McChesney fourth, the latter on the rail. Nearing the half-mile post, Knight moved up with Belle's Commoner on the outside, and at the same time Winkfield tried to force McChesney through an impossible opening on the rail. The other horses failed to make an opening for McChesney, and he was thrown against the fence and fell to the ground. Belle's Commoner then went on, and on the far turn had opened up a gap of a length in front of Lucien Appleby, who was two lengths in front of Wyeth. At this stage of the journey Crusados quit and fell back to last place. In fact, he had begun to stop at the half-mile ground, and this probably was responsible for the accident to McChesney. In the run through the stretch Belle's Commoner was never in the least trouble and won, eased up. Wyeth finished with his usual burst of speed in

Arsenal was breezed over the Derby distance, but was not asked to extend himself. His owner expressed pleasure over his condition, which, he said, had improved greatly over the form shown by the horse in the Metropolitan Handicap at Morris Park. It is expected that Jockey Bullman will ride Clarence Mackay's Heno in the Derby. Bullman is under contract with August Belmont, who is said, however, to have given consent. Last year's Derby was won by Bullman on Robert Waddell and he is anxious to make it "two straight."

STEVENSON AFTER

South Sider Anxious to Fight Winner of Block-Ryan Contest Monday Night.

Andy Stevenson, the South St. Lou's puglist who fought a ten-round draw with George Block last winter, has come forward with the announcement that he is willing to meet Block again, and states that he will gladly go against the winner of the Block-Philadelphia Tommy Ryan bout at the Business Men's Gymnasium next Monday evening. Stevenson says he is ready to meet the victor under any conditions. Local followers of the game believe Block has bright chances of defeating Ryan next Monday evening. His showing against Hanley indicates that he has improved greatly since his last bout. He is tail and sinewy in build, and his speed has increased of late so that it is thought he will be readily able to outpoint Ryan in their meeting
